

Alone

Eric Bellinger

Pretty out in public
But in private you a freak
Know you can take it
I can tell by your physique
You know I be picky about the company I keep
But I rock with you the way you rock with me
I can't wait to get you alone
'Cause you be on the type of shit that I'm on

You know how to keep the business low key
You the reason why the hits don't leak
You know how to close lips, don't speak
You pull up if I had a long week
You never wonder where I just might be
Give you TLC, but know my bed don't creep
Not unless it's in a front-row seat
You the best, that's why you just for me
My one and only, yeah

Pretty out in public
But in private you a freak
Know you can take it
I can tell by your physique
You know I be picky about the company I keep
But I rock with you the way you rock with me
I can't wait to get you alone
'Cause you be on the type of shit that I'm on

I get straight to it, I don't speak sideways
If you really wid it, come and swing my way
It feel like a minute, been at least five days
I just wanna kill it by at least Friday
I don't do the phone, gotta bring it here
Trying to take you home, like a souvenir
If you in the zone, we can disappear
If I got you all alone, they can't interfere
Girl we top tier

Pretty out in public
But in private you a freak
Know you can take it
I can tell by your physique
You know I be picky about the company I keep
But I rock with you the way you rock with me
I can't wait to get you alone
'Cause you be on the type of shit that I'm on
