

Anyway

Eric Bellinger

I always wanted love but was too ashamed
I wanted it to feel like back in the day
They said I'll never find someone wanting the same (Yeah)
But I fell in love anyway
I know this world is toxic and things have changed
I still believe in diamonds and wedding rings
They said I'll never find someone who was on the same shit
But I fell love anyway

Anyway
I did it anyway
Anyway
We did it anyway (Yeah)

What if I had to listen when they told me lies
What if I blocked your number after that one night
What if I just went ghost and we missed out on life
Guess we'll never know (Yeah)
What if I never asked you for your number (Yeah)
No one thought we'd be cuffing through the summer
You know your way 'round the kitchen and the covers
Never letting go, oh-oh-ooh

I always wanted love but was too ashamed (Love)
I wanted it to feel like back in the day (Like back in the day, yeah)
They said I'll never find someone wanting the same (Oh-oh)
But I fell in love anyway
I know this world is toxic (Ooh) and things have changed (Ooh)
I still believe in diamonds (Ooh) and wedding rings (Ooh)
They said I'll never find someone (Ooh) who was on the same shit
(Ooh)
But I fell love anyway

Anyway
I did it anyway
Anyway
We did it anyway
