

Call Me

Eric Bellinger

It's Jeffrey

Big boy with a big heart
But I need someone show me love
Big house and a big car
But I need some to share this stuff with
Why you wanna keep acting like you don't care baby don't be proud
You want me baby, I want you too
So, don't be shy but I hope that
You would call me, won't you call me
Won't you call me when you're feeling lonely?
Won't you call me? Won't you call me?
Won't you call me when you're feeling lonely?
Won't you call me? Won't you call me?
Won't you call me when you're feeling lonely?
Won't you call me? Won't you call me?
Sure my baby, yeah yeah yeah

Will you call me?
Will you call me?
Will you call me?
Will you call me? (call on me, call on me)
Will you call me? (Won't you call me when you're feeling lonely?)
Will you call me? (call on me, call on me)
Will you call me?
Will you call me?

What's a nice view with no one to come share it with?
Yeah Yeah Yeah
Someone like you ain't no one to compare it with
Girl I'm impressed you would be a big flex
If I could pull up on you let's FaceTime
Love that Itty bitty waist line
Baby I'm a mess
And with you I'm feeling blessed
If we make it to the bed
Won't be getting no rest
(It's E)

Won't you call me? Won't you call me?
Won't you call me when you're feeling lonely?
Won't you call me? Won't you call me?
Won't you call me when you're feeling lonely?
Won't you call me? Won't you call me?
Won't you call me when you're feeling lonely?
Won't you call me? Won't you call me?
Sure my baby, yeah yeah yeah

Will you call me? Will you call me?
Will you call me? Will you call me?
Will you call me? Will you call me?
Will you call me? Will you call me?

Will you call me? Will you call me?
Will you call me? Will you call me?
Will you call me? Will you call me?
Will you call me? Will you call me?
