

Don't Leave

Eric Bellinger

Hmm, what the eff?
You need a man, I can make you mine
You need a man, I can make you mine

Don't leave, don't leave
My girl, don't leave, yeah
'Cause you so different
Girl, you just bring me peace, yeah
Don't leave, don't leave
My girl, don't leave, yeah
Other girls, they want my soul
But you just bring me peace of mind
Don't leave, don't leave
My girl, don't leave, mmm
Don't leave, don't leave
My girl, don't leave, yeah
Other girls they come and go
But you stay in my dreams
Don't leave, don't leave
My girl, don't leave, yeah, yeah, yeah

I been in my feelings for way too long
That's the reason why I wrote this song
To tell you all the things that I've been holdin' onto
And onto, and onto, and late
You've been tellin' me that all my feelings are fake
It doesn't matter what I do 'cause it's never okay
And I got you 'cause I'm broken
And I'm beggin' don't give up on me

'Cause when I'm with you
I'm always tryna to be a better man for you, mmm
To be a better man for you
'Cause even if you're not mine
You know I'll do anything just to make you mine

Don't leave, don't leave
My girl, don't leave, yeah
'Cause you so different
Girl, you just bring me peace, yeah
Don't leave, don't leave
My girl, don't leave, yeah
Other girls, they want my soul
But you just bring me peace of mind
Don't leave, don't leave
My girl, don't leave, mmm
Don't leave, don't leave
My girl, don't leave, yeah
Other girls they come and go
But you stay in my dreams
My girl, don't leave, yeah, yeah, yeah

I be lovin' and touchin' your body
Tearin' up the corset
Spank them buns while you takin' all the sausage
Told my baby just so I could put you in a corvette

And in a spaceship if you ever get car sick
Anything you want, baby, tell what it is
Tryna make you my wife, I already cut off all my bitches
Every single promise, girl, you know that I'ma keep Stroke the genie out the lamp
So I can grant all your wishes

'Cause when I'm with you
I'm always tryna to be a better man for you, mmm
To be a better man for you
'Cause even if you're not mine
You know I'll do anything just to make you mine

Don't leave, don't leave
My girl, don't leave, yeah
'Cause you so different
Girl, you just bring me peace, yeah
Don't leave, don't leave
My girl, don't leave, yeah
Other girls, they want my soul
But you just bring me peace of mind
Don't leave, don't leave
My girl, don't leave, mmm
My girl, don't leave, yeah
Other girls they come and go
But you stay in my dreams
My girl, don't leave
