

Enough

Eric Bellinger

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Enough, it's enough

Stop hiding the truth from me
I deserve to know what's real
Ain't nothing like it used to be
And I don't know how to feel
It seem like everyday, it's something else
I'm tryna keep my faith, but I'm overwhelmed, yeah

First, they drain you mentally
Threatening your identity
Then they treat you like the enemy
Goddamn, Repetition of history
So the future ain't no mystery
Is it all a conspiracy, goddamn

We've been through enough, enough, enough
It's enough, enough, enough
We've been, We've been through too much, aye
Police brutality, yeah
We've been through too much, aye
Time for new strategy, yeah

First, they drain you mentally
Threatening your identity
Then they treat you like the enemy
Goddamn, Repetition of history
So the future ain't no mystery
Is it all a conspiracy, goddamn

We've been through enough, enough, enough
It's enough, enough, enough, we've been
We've been through
Sheesh
