

Gift Exchange

Eric Bellinger

Baby, yeah, yeah
Oh, oh (YFS)

It ain't about what you got from the gift exchange, yeah
Shouldn't really matter what that fat man in the red suit bring s, ay
'Specially when them bills is pillin' up on this holiday
'Long as we got each other and some love
We gon' be okay, yeah

I can't believe in just anything
And I know we all feel the same

So this Christmas, it's gonna be different
Still gon' be toys given out to the children
But this Christmas, we gotta treat it different
'Cause everything is changin' now (Yeah)
This Christmas, it's gonna be different
Still gon' be toys given out to the children
But this Christmas, we gotta treat it different
'Cause everything is changin' now (Yeah)

Priorities, mmm
Don't forget about your priories, no (Yeah)
If you sick in the bed without a plan
If you called off for work, they'll understand
If you've been in the trenches all year
Just keep your head up, you're still here, yeah

You can't believe in just anything
And I know we all feel the same

So this Christmas, it's gonna be different (Yeah)
Still gon' be toys given out to the children (Oh, oh)
But this Christmas, we gotta treat it different
'Cause everything is changin' now (Yeah)
This Christmas, it's gonna be different
Still gon' be toys given out to the children
But this Christmas, we gotta treat it different
'Cause everything is changin' now (Yeah)

It ain't about what you got from the gift exchange
It ain't about what you got from the gift exchange
It ain't about what you got from the gift exchange
It ain't about what you got from the gift exchange
