Eric Bellinger

Girl he got you work
Girl he got you work
Girl he got you workin too hard
Don't know what you worth
Built him from the dirt
Girl he got you workin too hard
You out here worried bout rent
Only thing that we gon split
Is ya legs
Girl he got you workin too hard

I know the whole recap
Ain't trippin on your past
That shit won't hold me back
I know ya worth plus tax
I see ya true potential
Tryna tap but into your mental
Lauryan said, 'It could be so simple...'
Girl he got you workin too hard

If he don't put you first
It ain't gone last
Girl you should be priority
Just say less I'll speak on your behalf
Girl he got you working too hard
Girl he got you work
Girl he got you work
Girl he got you workin too hard
Don't know what you worth
Built him from the dirt
Girl he got you workin too hard
You out here worried bout rent
Only thing that we gon split
Is ya legs
Girl he got you workin too hard

All that baggage you claim
Ain't no time for that Got you in coach, you too fly for that
Cartier frames in your birkin bag
Vision still blurred girl wassup with that?
Make it make sense
You deserve more girl
Make it make sense
Ooooooh
You could only be loyal so long

If he don't put you first
It ain't gone last
Girl you should be priority
Girl he got you working too hard
(Workin too hard)
Girl he got you work
Girl he got you work
(You should be at home chillin)
Girl he got you workin too hard

Don't know what you worth
(I just don't understand)
Girl he got you workin too hard
You out here worried bout rent
Only thing that we gon split
Is ya legs
Girl he got you workin too hard
