Maybe, you should headline, headline, headline
Baby, you should headline, headline, headline
Love it when you headline, headline, headline
Headline, headline, headline, yeah
I'm pulling up to your show, ayy
Mention my name at the door, ayy
Love to fuck you on the road, ayy
Sit front row while you headline, headline, headline
Love it when you headline, headline, headline, yeah

I need security
Already hit that shit, I'm in the league
Her boyfriend don't think that she into me
Serenade her now she into me
A boss, flew her out to Italy
Oh, that's your man? Is you kiddin' me?
You gon' keep running all into me
He barely keep that same energy, ah, yeah
All up in VIP, ayy
Puttin' that V on me, ah
You don't need backstage passes
When you got all that ass, yeah
You look like a star to me
Girl, what's your fantasy?
Put me on stage, I'm fucking you crazy
I want your fans to see, yeah, yeah, oh

Baby, you should headline, headline, headline
Love it when you headline, headline, headline
Headline, headline, headline, yeah

No backstage pass, I wanna watch right front and center
Star of the show, no cap, which is why you're selling out everyday
Which is why this body is on the menu
These bitches all wanna get with you, wanna be with you
I'm the one walkin up out the arena to take you to dinner
Show up and show out at your show, get loud and say, "That's my man"
And when you get up off in the back of the bus, I get on ten
Baby, you know, I'm your biggest fan
Baby, you know, I'm your biggest, uh

Maybe, you should headline, headline, headline
Baby, you should headline, headline, headline
Love it when you headline, headline, headline
Headline, headline, headline, yeah
I'm pulling up to your show, ayy
Mention my name at the door, ayy
Love to fuck you on the road, ayy
Sit front row while you headline, headline, headline
Love it when you headline, headline, headline, yeah

You like, you're my type, uh
Big brown booty with the light brown eyes
Hit that falsetto, we'll sing all night
I can make you a celebrity on my live
Waited all damn day
Just to [?] grab that, baby

I'm your biggest fan, swear, baby

Maybe, you should headline, headline, headline

Baby, you should headline, headline, headline

Love it when you headline, headline, headline

Headline, headline, headline, yeah

I'm pulling up to your show, ayy

Mention my name at the door, ayy

Love to fuck you on the road, ayy

Sit front row while you headline, headline, headline

Love it when you headline, headline, headline, yeah
