

Isolation

Eric Bellinger

Yeah, yeah
Whoa
Yeah

Hurry up 'cause baby I've been waiting
You know you don't need no invitation
This could be your only destination
We just need a little isolation
Come spend the night
Just the D, you and I
Intoxicated
We just need a little isolation

Girl, your body got me hypnotized
That's no lie, I slip inside
Dripping wet in your thighs, yeah (drippy)
Favorite part about you, I can't decide
We got time so open wide
Turn your water to wine, yeah

We gon' do this every day
You ain't never leaving
I can't seem to stay away
Hard to keep my distance

Hurry up 'cause baby I've been waiting
You know you don't need no invitation
This could be your only destination
We just need a little isolation
Come spend the night
Just the D, you and I
Intoxicated
We just need a little isolation

Living sweet
Slippers on my feet
When I'm at my suite
Paid the lease
Over a thousand feet
When we hit me suite
I'm just living the life with ya
The lady, in my
Presidential suite

Ain't it sweet
All that I could eat
Chef up in my suite
Falling asleep
Under them duvet sheets
When we in my suite
We'll be doing it right
If I ain't have you in my

You know you don't need no invitation
This could be your only destination

We just need a little isolation
Come spend the night
Intoxicated

Isolation
Isolate
Isolate
