

Last One Standing

Eric Bellinger

Niggas be making these promises, then they switching it up, I don't get it

Why can't these niggas be honest, they swear they committed but know they ain't ready

They tear your heart into pieces but don't pick 'em up, baby girl don't get sweated

Don't even sweat it, we'll make 'em regret it

You say it ain't no more real niggas around

Well maybe I'm the last one standing

You say it ain't nobody that can hold you down

Well maybe I'm the last one standing

They don't know about romancing

They don't give you what you demanding

You say it ain't no more real niggas around

Well maybe I'm the last one standing

Last one, last one, last one

Baby I'm the last one standing

Last one, last one, last one

Baby I'm the last one standing

You said that you through with them boys in your past

I'm your future and they ain't invited

You said you a ride or die chick

But we ain't finna die, in the mean time just ride it

You gon' be posting them pics on your 'gram

They'll be looking but they ain't gon' like it

No they ain't gon' like it, they ain't gon' like it

You say it ain't no more real niggas around

Well maybe I'm the last one standing

You say it ain't nobody that can hold you down

Well maybe I'm the last one standing

They don't know about romancing

They don't give you what you demanding

You say it ain't no more real niggas around

Well maybe I'm the last one standing

Last one, last one, last one

Baby I'm the last one standing

Last one, last one, last one

Baby I'm the last one standing

Last one, last one, last one

Baby I'm the last one standing

Last one, last one, last one

Baby I'm the last one standing

Baby I'm the last one standing

The last one standing
