(This gon' be your favorite song
YFS)

I been around but I never found one like you (like you)
My momma told me whenever I find love
I would know what to do (I would know what to do)
Yeah, yeah, yeah
And you be so deep inside my head (head)
You be like 4-5 moves ahead (ahead)
Damn girl, I just can't keep up with you (can't keep up with you)
And somebody sleepin' in my bed
This is somethin' I'm not used to yet
But I'm willing to try my luck with you

Baby, know I never wanted to get serious, oh no
Oh but lately I'm so caught up on you
Was lost now I'm found

I guess that's just my luck, yeah
You got me stuck, yeah
I don't want nobody else, oh
You got me slipping, I fell and
I can't get up, yeah, yeah
You got me stuck (I don't wanna)
You got me changing myself, oh
That's how I knew it, girl, oh
I guess that's just my luck

Now I pull up to the spot (pull up)
Swervin' fresh up out the lot (fresh, skrrt)
Yeah, they say I do a lot (yeah)
Guess I'm all these niggas pops (huh)
I got rid all my side chicks
You be Robin, you my sidekick
Rabbit foot up in my pocket (sheesh)
Turn the bass up when we ridin'
It's Eazy
Just doin' my thing
Living the dream
Not givin' a fuck (sheesh)
Too busy tryin' not to settle down (yeah)
Now that I see what we could be
Girl, wassup? (Wassup)
Maybe we should figure it out, oh

Baby, baby, know I never wanted to get serious, oh no
Oh, but lately I'm so caught up on you
Was lost now, I'm found

I guess that's just my luck, aw yeah
You got me stuck, yeah
I don't want nobody else
You got me slipping, I fell and
I can't get up, yeah
You got me stuck
You got me changing myself
That's how I knew it, girl

I guess that's just my luck

I been around but I never found one like you (like you)
My momma told whenever I find love
I would know what to do, woah

I guess that's just my luck, yeah (baby, you got me)
You got me stuck, yeah (baby, you got me)
I don't want nobody else
You got me slipping, I fell and
I can't get up, yeah (baby, you got me)
You got me stuck (baby, you got me, sheesh)
You got me changing myself
That's how I knew it, girl
I guess that's just my luck, yeah

I'm finna roll a seven right now
I'm finna take you back to my house
I'm finna take you down right now
I'm finna win a bet right now
It ain't my bae right now
You dripping wet right now
If you let me lick it up
I guess that's just my luck
