

Main Thang

Eric Bellinger

Custom made for the baddest in the club
Pockets full of hundreds no dubs
My old girl still gotta grudge
I'm slidin' with my main thang

I just left the club and I'm tipsy so be on your way
I already know that you miss me (I know)
So you might as well stay (stay stay stay stay)
3am, it's a party in my hotel (yeah)
Baby, just me and you in my hotel (yeah)
Music on loud while we go up in my hotel
Come do the things that I like and I won't tell

I can't control myself, tell me can you blame me?
I need you and no one else, swing through, baby
I used to break you off, watch you take it off
Can you take it off? She gon' take it off
She love to make it clap, round of applause
So she don't wanna go, that's a Eazy Call
And I know that we shouldn't be involved (No)
But this Henny got me thinking of my odds

I just left the club and I'm tipsy so be on your way
I already know that you miss me (I know)

Ah, gold rims shining on my Beamer though
Nothing but real niggas in my section, though, huh (yeah)
No help, I'm my own investor bro
Gold pieces all in my collection though (bling)
Bet not walk in my direction though
Perfect ten by my side
I'ma need you to drive, windows tinted on my ride
They can't see us inside, no
