

Maybe Never

Eric Bellinger

I know they tryna holler
She got them saying they love her
But she love me, I'm the supplier
I know they throwin' dollars
But what they don't know is that they can't afford to buy her
Rent check, rain check, it don't matter check, Maybach, it don't matter

She got her own, she's alright
She got me here all night
They can wait forever
They can wait forever
She say maybe never
She say maybe never

She got her own, she's alright
She got me here all night
They can wait forever
They can wait forever
She say maybe never
She say maybe never

All she do is me all day
All she want is me all day
All she see is things my way
She know she gon' be okay
House note paid up, she's a winner
In the kitchen, no clothes, cooking dinner
She's a winner, she's a winner

She got her own, she's alright
She got me here all night
They can wait forever
They can wait forever
She say maybe never
She say maybe never

She got her own, she's alright
She got me here all night
They can wait forever
They can wait forever
She say maybe never
She say maybe never

To all my sexy ladies with a boyfriend
If you do your part I promise he gon' hold you down
He'll be there for you, no doubt he'll care for you
If another girl hate there ain't a damn thing she can do
She'll never get the ring from you, cause
He'll only wanna be with you
Don't you ever let another nigga in

She got her own, she's alright
She got me here all night
They can wait forever
They can wait forever
She say maybe never

She say maybe never

She got her own, she's alright

She got me here all night

They can wait forever

They can wait forever

She say maybe never

She say maybe never

All she do is me all day

All she want is me all day

All she see is things my way

She know she gon' be okay
