

Never Be Lonely

Eric Bellinger

Here you go again, complaining
You claiming that I'm outta line
Here you go again, you say I'm spending
All my money but not my time

Didn't I say I'll be back tomorrow?
Didn't I say I seen your call?
Didn't I baby, didn't I, didn't I?
Didn't I say I will make it up?
Didn't I say I would  it up, girl?
You know I did, what you talking bout?

I get so lonely (Gurl, you trippin')
Can't wait for you to come and hold me,
You are the one that made me feel like this,
I should never be lonely.
How could you get so lonely girl
When you know I'm doing it for you?
You are the one, thought I lived inside your heart
You should never be lonely.

You say I never should be lonely
And that I'm your one and only
But the only time you ever seem to come around
Is when I yell and fuss and screaming down

Didn't I say I'll be back tomorrow? (No)
Didn't I say I seen your call? (Oh)
Didn't I baby, didn't I, didn't I? (I don't recall)
Didn't I say I will make it up?
Didn't I say I would it up, girl?
You know I did, what you talking bout?

I get so lonely (Girl, you're trippin')
Can't wait for you to come and hold me,
You are the one that made me feel like this,
I should never be lonely.
How could you get so lonely girl?
When you know I'm doing it for you,
You are the one, thought I lived inside your heart
You should never be lonely.

Ohh, oh why?
Ohh, oh why?
Oh why? I don't want no one but you
Ohh, ohh, I should never be lonely
I don't wanna be lonely, so girl you'll never be lonely, no
Ohh
