

Obsession

Eric Bellinger

(Hitmaka)
Yeah (Rockboy Beats)
Oh-oh-oh, yeah

It's an obsession
Just a reflection
Of things we both know
I can't let you go
It seems like
All of the seconds feel like minutes
All of the hours feel like days
Don't be too long
And don't take it wrong
It's an obsession

You ain't nothin like
I thought you was
You my left and right
You my all above
You got character
Nothin' compares to you
Know you've been all that I needed
More than I was completed
Don't you get too conceited
And that's where I gotta leave it

Cause I don't want you to think I'm crazy
For lovin' you
Doin' everything I said I'd do
Just to be true

It's an obsession
Just a reflection
Of things we both know
I can't let you go
It seems like
All of the seconds feel like minutes
All of the hours feel like days
Don't be too long
And don't take it wrong
It's an obsession

Babe, let me take my time
Kissin' on ya spine
Whoa, teasing below
How does it feel?
You got something real
Stay with me 'til
The sun's up and even still

Cause I don't want you to think I'm crazy
For lovin' you
Doin' everything I said I'd do
Just to be true

It's an obsession
Just a reflection

Of things we both know
I can't let you go
It seems like
All of the seconds feel like minutes
All of the hours feel like days
Don't be too long
And don't take it wrong
It's an obsession
