

Text Me Back

Eric Bellinger

I remember when I ain't have it like that
And my budget ran low
And them checks went fast
That was back in the day
But a few things changed
Got my change way up
So you should text me back
You should text me back (You should hit me on my line right now)
You should text me back
You should text me back (I got money honey you should text me back)
You should text me back
You should text me back (You should hit me on my line right now)
You should text me back
You should text me back (I got money honey you should text me back)

I remember never having it
Window shopping straight imaging
Street rat on some Aladdin shit
But this ain't Disney here to manage it
Stressing over them bills
Show me the damages
It ain't no biggie girl I can handle it
Hit the telly smoke some cannabis
Your friends all vote for me
The perfect candidate
Yeah
I can push the button like the president
Be a blessing for you girl I'm heaven sent
Don't worry about your past that ain't relevant
Tequila on the rocks we get hella bent
Classy but you so fly
You so elegant
Put you in my mouth like a peppermint
I'mma scoop it up like [?]
We can do it all
But first girl you gotta text and shit, aye

I remember when I ain't have it like that
And my budget ran low
And them checks went fast
That was back in the day
But a few things changed
Got my change way up
So you should text me back
You should text me back (You should hit me on my line right now)
You should text me back
You should text me back (I got money honey you should text me back)
You should text me back
You should text me back (You should hit me on my line right now)
You should text me back
You should text me back (I got money honey you should text me back)

That boy Eazy he the man now
Tell me, tell me have you seen em?
Yeah he still drive a German engine
But that's a different kind of Beamer
That's a different kind of Beamer

That's a different kind of Beamer
He be looking so clean
Lowkey my favorite R&B singer
But..

I remember when I ain't have it like that
And my budget ran low
And them checks went fast
That was back in the day
But a few things changed
Got my change way up
So you should text me back
You should text me back (You should hit me on my line right now)
You should text me back
You should text me back (I got money honey you should text me back)
You should text me back
You should text me back (You should hit me on my line right now)
You should text me back
You should text me back (I got money honey you should text me back)
