

That's Why

Eric Bellinger

You don't be on that bullshit (You don't be)
Nah, nah, nah (You don't be)
You gon' hold me down always (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
Yeah, so that's why I'm fucking with you (Yeah)
That's why I spend (Woah)
I said that's why I spend that on you (On you, spend that on you)
Case they need a reason why, that's why (That's why)

That's why I pull up with a bow on the whip
That's why (That's why), that's why (Pull up, that's why)
That's why you got a matchin' Rollie on your wrist
That's why (That's why), that's why (That's why)
That's why you gon' help me raise my kids (Raise my baby, that's why)
That's why (Okay)
That's why I had to make a song like this
So you know I'm fuckin' with you

Back, back, side to side, yeah
Say my name while you starin' in my face, yeah
All I want is you (All I want is you)
You so amazing (So amazing)
So good, that that good shit, had to change so I changed that

I need you, my schedule on freed up
Pull up, skrrt, two seater, uh
Passenger, she feet up, uh
All of these hoes gon' see us
They know they can't see us
They ask what's the reason I blew a crib, because

You don't be on that bullshit (You don't be)
Nah, nah, nah (You don't be)
You gon' hold me down always (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
Yeah, so that's why I'm fucking with you (Oh, yeah)
That's why I spend (Why)
I said that's why I spend that on you (On you, spend that on you)
Case they need a reason why, that's why (That's why)

That's why I pull up with a bow on the whip
That's why (That's why), that's why (Pull up, that's why)
That's why you got a matchin' Rollie on your wrist
That's why (That's why), that's why (That's why)
That's why you gon' help me raise my kids (Raise my baby, that's why)
That's why (Okay)
That's why I had to make a song like this
So you know I'm fuckin' with you

Look, runnin' through this money while your hair's in the wind
Hollywood nights in the drop top Benz
Somethin' like my homie and my lover and a friend
I was on a roll, you another win
Used to be the girl I always say that I'ma get
I remember tellin' other people in the Benz
Like when you see...
Tell her young Nip' got a APD for her

I need you, my schedule freed up

Pull up, skrrt, two seater, uh (Skrrt skrrt)
Passenger, she feet up, uh (Yeah)
All of these hoes gon' see us
They know they can't see us
They ask what's the reason I blew a crib, because

You don't be on that bullshit (You don't be)
You don't be, no, no (You don't be)
You gon' hold me down always (You gon' hold me down, that's the truth)
Yeah, yeah (You gon' stay around, fuckin' with you)
That's why I spend (You, you, you)
I said that's why I spend that on you (On you, spend that on you)
Case they need a reason why, that's why (That's why)

That's why I pull up with a bow on the whip
That's why (That's why), that's why (Pull up, that's why)
That's why you got a matchin' Rollie on your wrist
That's why (That's why), that's why (That's why)
That's why you gon' help me raise my kids (Raise my baby, that's why)
That's why (Okay)
That's why I had to make a song like this
So you know I'm fuckin' with you

So you know, so you know, girl
So you know, so you know, girl
So you know, so you know, girl
That's why
So you know, so you know, girl
So you know, so you know, girl
So you know, so you know, girl
So you know I'm fucking with you, girl
It's Eazy
