

Valentine

Eric Bellinger

Would you be
Would you be, yeah
YFS

Light skin why you curve his text
You tryna figure out what's next
I should've been the one you chose
So fine I wouldn't mind licking yours toes
All in between your legs and up your spine
Let a real nigga get you right, every night

Would you be
Would you be my valentine?
'Cause I just wanna pick up
I just wanna give you love
Would you be
Would you be my valentine?
'Cause I just wanna pick you up
I just wanna give you love

It could be a situation
Come with me share my vibration
But not just for the night
More like 365, more like 3 kids
When we vibe you feel the wave
Between your legs it's a dinner plate
Swimming pools in the summer bae
Hit Maldives in the winter bae
Give me your heart, don't be afraid
Room with no size to entertain
But before I cut 'em off, tell me

Would you be
Would you be (tell me, girl) my valentine?
'Cause I just wanna pick up
I just wanna give you love
Would you be (I just wanna)
Would you be my valentine?
'Cause I just wanna pick you up
I just wanna give you love
