

Way You Move

Eric Bellinger

Give me something that I never had, babe
Give me something, give me something
Give me something that I never had, babe
Give me something (Hitmaka), give me something

Yeah
I would trade anything for you
Yeah, ayy, ayy
In the Maybach, I got space for my queen
Close the curtains, girl, we need some privacy
They been tryna see, yeah
Might have to pull up over there, I don't care
I need that in the driver seat, ayy, that's my type of a freak, ayy (Freak)
Hit that violent leak, yeah
When she slide on me, yeah

Something 'bout the way you move (Give me something, you move, give me something) Spend all my time on you (Give me something, all of my time, gi ve me something)
Hard to focus when I got you on my mind (Give me something, my mind, give me something, yeah)
Every time I'm touchin' you, woah, oh, oh (Give me something, a ll of my time, give me something)
It's Eazy

Damn
Way you put your curves all in my face without no waist
Got me sayin', "God damn" Usually, I pull up, pull up, pull off without no trace (Skrrt, skrrt, skrrt)
Girl, you know that I enjoy my privacy
But me and you, we in a different bag (Bag)
I'm tryna be your future, fuck your past (Past) I'm tryna put your first name with my last Same vibration

Something 'bout the way you move (Give me something, you move,
give me something) Spend all my time on you (Give me something, all of my time, gi ve me something)
Hard to focus when I got you on my mind (Give me something, my mind, give me something, yeah)
Every time I'm touchin' you, woah, oh, oh (Give me something, a ll of my time, give me something)
It's Eazy
