

Writer's Block

Eric Bellinger

If I'm writing 'bout you
I never get writer's block
Too many words in the world
There's just too many words
In the world
If I'm writing about you
You are the perfect muse
So I never get writer's block
I never get writer's block

You're a masterpiece conceptually
Body so inspiring
I'm talking love and lust
Like a present on a holiday
Baby you're the perfect gift for me
When we're alone
All the love that we make
Turn into a song
Every album I create
Can never go wrong
It keeps going on and on
Behind every number one is my number one

If I'm writing 'bout you
I never get writer's block
Too many words in the world
There's just too many words
In the world
If I'm writing about you
You are the perfect muse
So I never get writer's block
I never get writer's block

I got a confession
You're a classic like thriller
And we be in harmony every
Full moon, girl, I feel ya
You're my sweet lady
Dropping hit after hit, after hit
Like Prince in the 80s

When we're alone
All the love that we make
Turn into a song
Every album I create
Can never go wrong
It keeps going on and on
Behind every number one is my number one

If I'm writing 'bout you
In the world
If I'm writing about you

I never get writer's block no
