

You'll Learn

Eric Bellinger

There you go
Doin' that dumb shit that I don't like
Doin' that dumb shit that I don't like
I could switch after just one night
I'm a get it back

There you go
Blowin' my phone up like it's alright
Now you expect me to read your mind
Ain't gon' front you it's just my type

I told you
That I loved you
Swear to God I meant that shit
Starting to regret that shit
What's your name girl
I don't know you
You acting like the rest of them
But I don't really mess with them

What am I gonna say
I can't help it if I come home late
You was cool on our first date
Now all you do is just complain
Bring back the girl I know
Now you gon' learn the hard way
You gon' learn the hard way
The hard way

You'll learn The hard way
You'll learn the hard way
The hard way

There you go
Sayin same old shit that I don't like
Stare that kiss and you're out the fight
Still in touch and you sleep all night
I don't get it back

Don't you know
How many girls ready to take your spot
How many girls I let to sit there dry
Ain't gon' front you it's just my type

I told you
That I loved you
Swear to God I meant that shit
Starting to regret that shit
What's your name girl
I don't know you
You acting like the rest of them
But I don't really mess with them

What am I gonna say
I can't help it if I come home late
You was cool on our first date
Now all you do is just complain

Bring back the girl I know
Now you gon' learn the hard way
You gon' learn the hard way
The hard way

You'll learn The hard way
You'll learn the hard way
The hard way

You gon learn the hard way
You gon learn the hard way
Spare a ride spoiled child
Don't get mad at me this what God say
And I'm just tryin' to listen
Girl I'm just tryin to be a good christian
Lord please please forgive me
But I ain't got no time for these bitches
Tryin' to get the money while you actin funny
Girl I'm on the grind money on my mind
While you missin terms
Talking about time when I'm right here
They ain't got 'em right here
You ain't talking shit when I had your ass on the rear
And got you on frontier
Bet you wanna cry, when you went on turns
Waiting for you on line

How many times!?
You was cool on our first date
Now all you do is just complain
Bring back the girl I know
Now you gon' learn the hard way
You gon' learn the hard way
The hard way

I'm a teach you a lesson
So you never do that shit again
Said you'll learn the hard way
