You Look Amazing

Eric Bellinger

You look amazing girl
This gon' be your favourite

Damn baby, I been concentrating
So when I say it, when I say this shit right
I gotta tell you cause this nigga waiting
If I get it wrong, they gon' get this shit right

Every day, every day, every day
You be blowing my mind
Every day, every day, every day
No I don't always tell you

That you look amazing
Everything great, everything right
You look amazing
I just see day birds, every damn night
And I ain't never seen that body on nobody
What you doing girl? You got that shit right
You look amazing
Damn you look amazing

I gotta tell you baby girl, I noticed
There's nothing to you girl, that's worth life
And niggas in agreement but they never tell you
If they do, them niggas might lose they life

Every day, every day, every day
You be blowing my mind
Every day, every day, every day
You in case I never tell you

You look amazing
Everything great, everything right
You look amazing
I just see day birds, every damn night
And I ain't never seen that body on nobody
What you doing girl? You got that shit right
And you look amazing
Damn you look amazing

You look so amazing
I do not plan on breaking up
Every night I'm racing to you
So I can beat that shit up
