

Gonna Be My Girl

Eric Benét

First time I ever saw you, across a crowded cafe
I was staring at my future, face to face
You were like a loving memory, though we'd never met before
Then you smiled, and my heart was yours, forevermore
Of all the things I've known that can't be denied
I've never been so sure, in all my life

I don't know how, I don't know when,
I don't know what I'm gonna say to make it all begin
But I do know one thing, as sure as anything
As sure as, love is still alive in this world
You're gonna be my girl, you're gonna be,
You're gonna be, you're gonna be my girl

I was going through some changes, and I know I broke your heart
But I've been working on myself since we've been apart
Yes girl, some things you have to just let go
Till you learn the way to hold them
You were the best of anything, I've ever known
The love we had comes once upon a life
And I'll be damned if I'll give up just let it die

I don't know how, I don't know when, I don't know
I don't know what I'm gonna do to bring you back again
But I do know one thing, one thing, as sure as anything
As sure as love is still alive in this world
You're gonna be my girl, you're gonna be,
You gonna be, you're gonna be my girl

Ooh, I know this road won't be easy, I know babe
It's gonna be the fight of my life, of my life
But a love that tries, is a love that survives
And I'll be holding on with all of my might 'cause I

I don't know how, I don't know when,
I don't know what the hell to do, to bring you back again
What the hell I'm gonna do,
But I do know one thing, one thing, as sure as anything
As sure as love is still alive in this world, you're my girl
I don't know how, I don't know when,
I don't know what the hell to do to bring you back again
But I do know one thing, as sure as anything
As sure as love is still alive in this world
You're gonna be my girl
