

Remember Love

Eric Benét

Faded picture in a stolen frame
Feels like I don't know your name
Oh what I would give to know again please understand
When I reach out
The air is cold
Nothing to see nothing to hold
All our story is untold
So what am I hoping for

Now that it's gone
I'm left to remember love
Whatever it was
It never was enough
Now there's no changing minds
No taking backs
No missing what we had
Cause it's gone
Now I'm left to remember
Left to remember love

I hope you don't think it's because of me
There are so many signs we didn't see
Communication is supposed to be priority
I felt as slowly drift apart
Watching us die just broke my heart
Look at my face
Nothing to say
It's just too late

Now that it's gone
I'm left to remember love
Whatever it was
It never was enough
Now there's no changing minds
No taking backs
No missing what we had
Cause it's gone

Oh, get it back
Just here to remember
Whatever it was
It just wasn't enough
So sorry baby
No take it back
Can't go back
No, get it back
Can't go back
Because it's
