

Too Soon

Eric Benét

Do you know the old bodega by the ocean where the cool cats go
Where lovers watch the sun go down
And there's a band I hear they're flying in tomorrow up from São Paul o
Let's dance until the stars come out, leave all our worries

Girl please don't go what's your hurry
Just let the world keep on turning (Don't you go away) No don't you do that (Don't you go away, girl)

Too soon to say goodbye (Love, it's so early)
Too soon to say goodbye (Don't need to hurry)
Just one more glass of wine
Who leaves a perfect day, love
Just stay, love

You stole a glance as I was walking past your table at that old café
A sweet suggestion on your face
Now this romance I feel it blooming like the daisies in the month of May
I'm thinking maybe I should stay, leave all my worries

Romance is just what this girl needs not much back home waiting for m e
(Don't you go away) I wouldn't do that
(Don't you go away, girl)

Too soon to say goodbye (Love, it's so early)
Too soon to say goodbye (Don't need to hurry)
Just one more glass of wine
Who leaves a perfect day, love
Just stay, love

Romance is just what this girl needs not much back home waiting for m
(Don't you go away) I wouldn't do that (Don't you go away, girl) I wouldn't do that

Too soon to say goodbye (Love, what's your hurry)
Too soon to say goodbye (Don't need to worry)
Just one more glass of wine
Who leaves a perfect day, love
Just stay, love

(It's) too soon to say goodbye (Love, what's your hurry)
Too soon to say goodbye (Don't need to worry)
Just one more glass of wine
Who leaves a perfect day, love
Just stay, love
