

Be Mine

Eric Burdon

Free impossible believers
If they worry ev'ry minute that goes by
Be the magic of the morning

Be mine, all the time
Be mine, be mine
Baby, be mine

Why do you belong to someone?
Try to see yourself between you being blind
Be the woman who believes me

Be mine

When you say you love somebody
Say it loud and absolutely blow their minds
Be my only inspiration

Be mine

Come and listen to my story
Don't be afraid to leave your tears by my side
Be the woman on my pillow

Be mine
