The Devil and Jesus The Devil and Jesus The Devil and Jesus Controlling my soul They fight with each other But I pay the toll For years they've been fighting For a piece of my mind Which one will win And leave the other behind The Devil and Jesus (3x)I have to agree Each one, in my heart, has planted its seed But I'm no different from any of you I look at myself L see them there too Be careful my friend! Which side you feed The monster inside soon will be revealed Now don't be a fool And say it's not true Either the Devil or Jesus Will tell you what to do The Devil or Jesus That you keep confined There is always the danger Of losing your mind The Devil and Jesus (repeats)
