

I've Been Driftin' / Once Upon A Time

Eric Burdon

Well I'm drifting
And I'm drifting
Like a ship out on the sea
Well I'm drifting
And I'm drifting
Like a ship out on the sea
Now I ain't got nobody, oh no
Nobody in this world to care for me

Once upon a time, I know
Once upon a time, I suppose
The whole round world was won
And then one morning the sun began to melt our lives started turning
And since that day I've been drifting

Oh, drifting, drifting, and drifting and drifting
Just like a ship out on the stormy sea
I've been drifting
Oh yes, I've been drifting, drifting, yes drifting, drifting, and drifting, drifting, drifting, drifting, drifting, and drifting...
