

Streetwalker

Eric Burdon

A woman can be like a child
When she teases
A woman, she can bring you to your knees
A woman, she can turn your night to day
Same woman, she can take your rights away

See her walking so proud
Along the teaming boulevard
She gets everybody's eye
As she goes strolling by
You can hear me say
Streetwalker, dirty talker

A woman can make a man feel like a king
But the same woman
Through your nose she'll put a ring
And for this woman
You'll follow her 'til your dying day
For this woman
You cherish every word she says
