

Dream Girl

Eric Ethridge

I don't wanna fall asleep, baby
I don't even wanna close my eyes
'Cause I'll be seein' you, baby
Yeah, it looks a little worse every time
I toss and turn and check my phone
Anythin' to keep you gone
Out of my head, out of my mind
Out of my bed tonight

'Cause you were my dream girl
Everything embodied in me girl
Why'd you have to walk away and leave girl?
Why'd you have to walk away, oh?
We used to be all night kissin' under covers
You were all mine, everything was good until you said "Good bye" to me
Now you're nothin' but a dream girl

Splashin' water on my face, maybe
That'll keep me up a little bit longer
By the way I think I'm goin' crazy
It's gettin' me and I ain't gettin' any stronger
Your makeup's off the pillowcase
But girl you know I can't erase
You outta my head, outta my mind
Out of my bed tonight

'Cause you were my dream girl
Everything embodied in me girl
Why'd you have to walk away and leave girl?
Why'd you have to walk away, oh?
We used to be all night kissin' under covers
You were all mine, everything was good until you said "Good bye" to me
Now you're nothin' but a dream girl
Now you're nothin' but a dream girl
Oh, yeah, yeah

Dream girl, outta my head, outta mind mind
Outta my bed
Dream, why'd you have to walk away

'Cause you were my dream girl
Everything embodied in me girl
Why'd you have to walk away and leave girl?
Why'd you have to walk away?
We used to be all night kissin' under covers
You were all mine, everything was good until you said "Good bye" to me
Oh, now you're nothin' but a dream girl
Oh, now you're nothin' but a dream girl

Oh, dream girl
Dream girl
