Forever With You

Eric Ethridge

Don't know much about flowers, but they look good in your hair
I don't know about dresses, but I like every one you wear

We ain't gotta break your daddy's bank
You don't need to find you something borrowed
I just want you wearin' my last name
For the rest of your tomorrows

In a church, in a barn, underneath all the stars
On a beach out in Malibu
In a courthouse with jeans on, in Vegas in neon
By a preacher with blue suede shoes
When you're standin' right next to an angel
You see heaven in every view
So I'll go anywhere (Anywhere), anywhere (Anywhere)
Wherever gets me to forever with you

They could be in front of your hometown
On any given Saturday
In your mom and dad's backyard
Or a thousand miles away

But I don't wanna waste another minute
'Cause God ain't makin' more time
And all I know is I ain't really livin'
Till the whole world knows you're mine

In a church, in a barn, underneath all the stars
On a beach out in Malibu
In a courthouse with jeans on, in Vegas in neon
By a preacher with blue suede shoes
When you're standin' right next to an angel
You see heaven in every view
So I'll go anywhere (Anywhere), anywhere (Anywhere)
Wherever gets me to forever with you

Forever with you, yeah

We ain't gotta break your daddy's bank
You don't need to find you something borrowed
I just want you wearin' my last name
For the rest of your tomorrows

(In a church) In a church, in a barn, underneath all the stars
On a beach out in Malibu
In a courthouse with jeans on, in Vegas in neon
By a preacher with blue suede shoes
When you're standin' right next to an angel
You see heaven in every view
So I'll go anywhere (Anywhere), anywhere (Anywhere)
Wherever gets me to forever with you

Wherever gets me to forever with you
