

Miss Me

Eric Ethridge

It's late, I know I shouldn't be thinking about you
Two months, feels like forever living without you
Just thought I'd call you up and hear your voice again
Maybe that'd be enough to numb the hurt I'm in, 'cause

I'm doing fine
I can get by with a half-hearted smile that hides the pain
It's all been wrong
Since you've been gone these days and nights don't feel the same
It's okay, I'll move on before long, babe
I don't need your pity
I just wanna hear you say you miss me

This ain't about my pride, girl
You know I'm not like that
But the memories of my lonely keep pulling me right back
I don't need you to give me no peace of mind
I'm just needing mercy, hurt me one last time girl

I'm doing fine
I can get by with a half-hearted smile that hides the pain
It's all been wrong
Since you've been gone these days and nights don't feel the same
It's okay, I'll move on before long, babe
I don't need your pity
I just wanna hear you say you miss me

Don't need you to come back
We both know it won't last
But if you could call me back

I'm doing fine
I can get by with a half-hearted smile that hides the pain
It's all been wrong
Since you've been gone these days and nights don't feel the same
It's okay, I'll move on before long, babe
I don't need your pity
I just wanna hear you say you miss me
Hear you say you miss me
