

Waves

Eric Ethridge

It's a pretty hand surfing out the window
Rolling down the PCH
It's your long hair tangled in you Wayfair's
Singing to an old mixtape
It's a red sunset at the end of that pier
Still can't forget after all these years

It comes in waves
I'm right back swimming in your blue eyes
Soaking up the sunshine
It comes in waves
I'm right there crashing into your kiss
Back when you were mine
It's pulling me in
Keeps pulling me under
Still can't escape that you and me summer
Just when I think I'm doing okay
Girl it's some break
Still comes in waves, oh yeah
It still comes in waves

The sweet smell grassin' up
Slowly into that diamond sky
A blanket in the sand your hand in my hand
Watching planes fly by
I just can't help
Wonder where you are
On nights like this
It just hits so hard

It comes in waves
I'm right back swimming in your blue eyes
Soaking up the sunshine
It comes in waves
I'm right there crashing into your kiss
Back when you were mine
It's pulling me in
Keeps pulling me under
Still can't escape that you and me summer
Just when I think I'm doing okay
Girl it's some break
Still comes in waves
It still comes in waves, oh yeah

Over and over same old song
But girl I just hold on

It comes in waves
I'm right back swimming in your blue eyes
Soaking up the sunshine
It comes in waves
It's pulling me in
Just when I think I'm doing okay

Girl it's some break
Still comes in waves, oh yeah
Still comes in waves
