

a million bucks on a queen motel bed

Eric Hutchinson

Ok I brought some back from colorado just to see
If on the nights you're working late I can set myself free
I'm getting oh so horizontal netflix on tv
Feeling good

There's nothing else to do but
Follow up this hunch
By the time you come home
I'll be out to lunch

I'm a million bucks on a queen motel bed
I'm the king of france and it's off with my head
I'm up so high it feels like nothing's even happening
I'll spark the sky and let the windows get to rapping
Maybe tomorrow I will finally finish laughing

I never noticed how the floor can shimmer in this light
And now I'm hungry but don't really want an appetite
You know the wolfman told me to be careful love can bite
And it hurts

Somebody change the channel
Everything's the same
Polyester flannel
Email novocaine

I'm a million bucks on a queen motel bed
I'm the king of france and it's off with my head
I'm up so high it feels like nothing's even happening
I'll spark the sky and let the windows get to rapping
Maybe tomorrow I will finally finish laughing

Say how you feel you've got something on your mind
It's been hard to handle can't keep it inside
I know it's getting harder each and every day
You got a brand new prescription maybe that's the only way

I'm a million bucks on a queen motel bed
I'm the king of france and it's off with my head
I'm up so high it feels like nothing's even happening
I'll spark the sky and let the windows get to rapping
Maybe tomorrow I will finally finish laughing
