

Good Rhythm

Eric Hutchinson

Good rhythm, really don't care
I can take the elevator, you can take the stairs
Good rhythm, killin' my time
A little bit of luxury, I really don't mind
God, just give me a chance
God, just give me a chance
God, just give me a chance
Or get off the floor if you're not gonna dance

That's me, the heir apparent
Dancin' ninjas in Paris
Talk shit and hurt my larynx
I still live with my parents
Wake up, I'm so delighted
Play Xbox, all new white kids
Black out and dream white lightning
Cause I really don't care

I'm not like those other rich kids you might know
That's the reason I don't get in trouble

I need some good rhythm, really don't care
I can take the elevator, you can take the stairs
Good rhythm, killin' my time
A little bit of luxury, I really don't mind
Baby, give me a chance
Baby, give me a chance
Baby, give me a chance
Or get off the floor if you're not gonna dance

What can I say?
It's another day
Why don't I work much harder?
I'm drunk on what I say

Breakin' down, breakin' down
Losing myself, I'm breakin' down [x4]

Good rhythm, really don't care
I can take the elevator, you can take the stairs
Good rhythm, killin' my time
A little bit of luxury, I really don't mind
Dad, just give me a chance
Dad, just give me a chance
Dad, just give me a chance
Or get off the floor if you're not gonna dance

Good rhythm
Good rhythm
