

Waterwheel

Eric Johnson

I'm starting to think my honor isn't for sale
All of the hurting rumors are gone
Cause what if every morning
I shot myself with love
I would have so much more
To give away, yeah

I'm starting dance then fall to reach you
All of the fine forgivings call out my name
Cause never was a promise
That life turns out ok
We have to make it happen
Though it is planned

Waterwheel
Turning in my life so sweet
Chance to heal
Any challenges I meet
And I need you now

Remember what's important
Shine like a billion suns
And always to remember
That's who we are, Mmm

Waterwheel
Turning in my life so sweet
Chance to heal
Any tragedy I meet
And I need you now
Lord I need you
