

Confess

Eric Martin

I know
You were walking past my house this night
I see
How you stand in my line of sight
Oh, I can see your heart's in distress
Confess
You look
From each move you were deep inside
You act
Supposed so innocent but you can't hide
Those little beige eyes say yes
Confess
I shiver in the heat
Now your breath so sweet upon me
You hit me with your eye/line
But I'm not blind
The truth is in your kiss
Confess
Baby, confess
Oh, don't leave me with this emptiness
Confess
You kill
Me with coolest frustration's intense
I can't take
How you fake your indifference
Soften for your tenderness
Confess
I shiver in the heat
Now your breath so sweet upon me baby
You hit me with your eye/line
But I'm not blind
The truth is in your kiss
Confess
Baby, confess
Oh, don't leave me with this emptiness
Confess
