Goin' Sane

Eric Martin

I'll cut my hair and change my looks to
Please the universe
I'll ride the wave to get the girl
I'll join the club and win some brownie
Points for attitude
And build an ark and save the world
I'm goin' sane at last
I'm goin' sane, goin' sane, oh yeah
I'm gonna make a wish, blow the candles out
Give myself the slip, smile and take a bow
Wear a stupid grin like the rest of them
I'm goin' sane
So pass the plate and fill my cup with Empty promises
I'll kiss the hand that slaps my face
I'll crawl inside my best disguise and turn invisible
And disappear without a trace
I'm goin' sane at last
I'm goin' sane, goin' sane, oh yeah
I'm gonna make a wish, blow the candles out
Give myself the slip, smile and take a bow
Wear a stupid grin like the rest of them
I'm goin' sane
Gonna make a joke of the man I used to be
Gonna drink a toast to the twisted part of me
Gonna say goodbye you know I will never be the same
I'm goin' sane
