

I Can't Relax

Eric Martin

I remember when
I used to walk an easy life
Then you stepped in
Stepped me right out of my mind
Now there's a fire running through my veins
A hammer pounding in my brain
There are some things
That I just can't explain
So girl don't ask
I can't relax
I can't relax
I never knew my heart could beat this fast
I can't relax
Can't concentrate
The shadow everything I see
I lie awake
with anxiousness won't let me be Cause there's an instinct that I just can't tame
And this feeling drives me half insane
When dreams possess me to call out your name
A pull's react???
I can't relax
I never knew my heart could beat this fast
I can't relax
I can't explain it
I remember when
I was happy sleeping on my own
Took over than
Now I can't face one more night alone
Now there's a fire running through my veins
And a hammer pounding in my brain
I can't decide
If it's pleasure or pain
So girl don't ask
I can't relax
I never knew my heart could beat this fast
I can't relax
I can't explain it
