

Untouchable

Eric Martin

There's a reason why she's by herself
She reeks of trouble it's a panic smell
Wavin' her freak flag, baby's untouchable
She's the goddess of the doubble cross
She makes a man become a man of the cloth
If I was caught in the trap, I would chew my leg off
She was voted girl most likely to break hearts
Motor rollin' over poor white trash in her daddy's car
I'll brave a fools paradise
To pick that apple and take a bite
I'm just another guy and the girl's untouchable
She's sugar pretty like a magazine
Under the covers what you can't see
Behind that smile is a calamity
I'll walk a mile just to light that candle
The jokers wild and hard to handle
I'll spit in the wind and take that gamble
She was voted girl most likely to break hearts
Motor rollin' over poor white trash in her daddy's car
She's a tall cool drink of water
And the devil's favorite daughter
I'm just another guy and the girl's untouchable
