

Exist

Eric Nam

Holding my breath just to hold on
Doing my best to not get lost again
All we have left is both of us
Forget the rest of what goes wrong again

Does it even matter, if we didn't happen
The way that you and I would always want
Fumble through the madness, driving just to crash it
Time won't move as fast if we don't run

Hold, hold me in your hands
I'm just a speck of sand
Lost in the wind
Til I catch your drift
Spinning me in circles, oh
It's easy to dismiss
As if we're just a blip
Put it on the line
Just for tonight
Only you and I exist

Why do we fear what we could have?
When it gets good we always run away
Scared that we might repeat the past
Falling in love should never feel this way

Does it even matter, if we didn't happen?
The way that you and I would always want
Fumble through the madness, driving just to crash it
Time won't move as fast if we don't run

Hold, hold me in your hands
I'm just a speck of sand
Lost in the wind
Til I catch your drift
Spinning me in circles, oh
It's easy to dismiss
As if we're just a blip
Put it on the line
Just for tonight
Only you and I exist

Only you
Only you and I, only you
Only you and I, only you
Only you and I, only you
Only you and I exist

Hold, hold me in your hands
I'm just a speck of sand
Lost in the wind
Til I catch your drift
It's easy to dismiss
Put it on the line
Just for tonight

Only you, only you and I exist
