Baby I'll be good for you

You must've had a hard day
It must've felt so long
I'll go pick you up right now

Imagining your tired face
Getting caught at the red light
Makes me so impatient

For you, oh baby you
For you, oh baby you
Yeah, you can tell me anything
I'll listen to everything
Cause I'm good for you

How about a glass of champagne with me tonight?
How about a latte at your favorite cafe, ok?
Yeah, tell me everything you wanted to do
Baby don't worry
Baby I'll be good for you

You're probably tired, you can doze off
There's traffic here anyway
I'll wake you up when we're there

For you, oh baby you
For you, oh baby you
Yeah, you don't need to say anything
I'll figure it all out
Cause I'm good for you

How about a glass of champagne with me tonight?
How about a latte at your favorite cafe, ok?
Yeah, tell me everything you wanted to do
Baby don't worry
Baby I'll be good for you

When you feel tired and blue
No, even when you don't feel that way
Call me, I'll go right next to you
My love
Baby let me in

How about a glass of champagne with me tonight?
How about a latte at your favorite cafe, ok?
Yeah, tell me everything you wanted to do
Baby don't worry
Baby I'll be good for you
