

How'm I Doing

Eric Nam

You're the one I call when I'm Thinkin bout nothing at all you're You're the one I need when
I'm feeling good about anything I think
You're the one I reach for
When I wanna celebrate something
You're the one I look for
In everything everywhere and I

Oh I'm doing my best
It don't always work
Cause I get distracted
And I know it hurts
Cause you love so easy
And you put me first
And so while I have you

I'm tryna be the man you need
I'm tryna be keep you next to me
Oh I'm tryna be
The one you call
The one you reach
For anything at all
Oh yeah

Oh, how'm I doing
Oh, how'm I doing

Oh I'm tryna be
The one you call
The one you reach
For anything at all
Oh yeah

You're the one I want when I'm Losing myself in a moment
You're the one I'd run for Oh I'd step into traffic I know that You'd be at my front door
Fighting for me
Like you fought for me so many times

Oh I'm doing my best
It don't always work
Cause I get distracted
And I know it hurts
Cause you love so easy
And you put me first
And so while I have you

Oh I'm tryna be the man you need
I'm tryna be keep you next to me
Oh I'm tryna be
The one you call
The one you reach
For anything at all
Oh yeah

Oh, how'm I doing
Oh, how'm I doing

Oh I'm tryna be
The one you call
The one you reach
For anything at all
Oh yeah

So can I
Be the one you call when you're
Thinking 'bout nothing
And can I
Be the one you reach for
When you haven't been sleeping at all
Can I be
Can I be the one
