

One Way Lover

Eric Nam

What's my name sitting next to inside of your head?
If it's even there
And is it fading away
Or are you holding your breath?
Come back up for air

Every day I think it's way past the end
Every second guess takes you back again

How you living
Bet it's not so different
Don't you ever wanna miss me at all?

You're a one way lover
Now it makes me wonder
Why I'd ever wanna miss you at all?

I'm OK with the way
That you're handling your shit
Wasn't mine to begin with
But when you stand in the door
While you're asking for more
Don't stop letting me in

Why do you need to see my heart in your hands?
You don't believe that I might hold yours instead

How you living
Bet it's not so different
Don't you ever want to miss me at all?

You're a one way lover
Now it makes me wonder
Why I'd ever wanna miss you at all?

Ooh-ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh-ooh
Ooh-ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh

Been a minute
You're saying you don't know again
Doing laps thinking I'll never notice it
I been sitting here
Hoping I could hope again
Like an idiot
Tell me, is it over yet?

How you living
Bet it's not so different
Don't you ever want to miss me at all?

You're a one way lover
Now it makes me wonder
Why I'd ever wanna miss you at all?
