

You look so beautiful right now
Eyes full of light and I don't know how
How we didn't make this work
I can see you're happier

We pretend like it's nothing at all
Til we're mixing our words with some alcohol
Scared of feelings we can't hide
Knowing that you can't be mine

Speaking through glances
So he doesn't notice
I hope that he treats you well
My thoughts are better
If they're left unspoken
Keeping 'em to myself

Wish we could stay
Stuck in time
Dancing in the dead of the night
Sweet escape
I hold on tight

To shades of gray
Between the lines
Yeah, that's all we've ever known
It's ok, yeah, it's all right
We're forever undefined

This is our happiest ending
So I guess we'll go on pretending
That I'm not in your heart
We'll never get past this part

Speaking through glances
So he doesn't notice
I hope that he treats you well
My thoughts are better
Keeping 'em to myself

Wish we could stay
Stuck in time
Dancing in the dead of the night
Sweet escape
I hold on tight

To shades of gray
Between the lines
Yeah, that's all we've ever known
It's ok, yeah, it's all right
We're forever undefined

Wish we could stay
Stuck in time
Dancing in the dead of the night
Sweet escape

I hold on tight

To shades of gray

Between the lines

Yeah, that's all we've ever known

We're forever undefined
