I think it was even before we said hi
Because there was just something different about you
An aromatic melody comes with the wind
I just feel good without a reason

Listen oh oh oh,
Oh oh oh oh, to the sound of spring coming
Oh oh oh, oh oh oh oh
I wanna listen with you
Sitting on a bench with you
When I give you my earphones
It'll be like sharing this spring together, yeah

A small flower blossomed on top of that tree
Who came to this spot?
This dazzling season that blooms early flowers
Like a watercolor, you spread inside of me
Who are you? You, who who?
Love you, who who?
Oh you, who who?
Everything I see resembles you

Welcome to my La-La-Land
When we meet eyes
We're inside a feel-good daydream
All of these ordinary things, you make special
I really feel like I'm dreaming

Listen oh oh oh,
Oh oh oh oh, to the sound of spring coming
Oh oh oh, oh oh oh oh
I wanna listen with you
Laying on the grass with you
I wanna give you my earphones
And share this spring with you, yeah

A small flower blossomed on top of that tree
Who came to this spot?
This dazzling season that blooms early flowers
Like a watercolor, you spread inside of me

Everything I look at and listen to with you, baby
All seems like a miracle
Each minute, each second
Each and every moment
Will become a good memory
That's what will happen, yeah

Oh girl, yeah yeah,
Oh baby, you, who?

A small flower blossomed on top of that tree
Who came to this spot?
This dazzling season that blooms early flowers
Like a watercolor, you spread inside of me
Who are you? You, who who?
Love you, who who?
Oh you, who who?
Everything I see resembles you
