

You're Sexy I'm Sexy

Eric Nam

I'm not saying you should get too comfortable
But if you wanna slip your coat off baby
That'd be fine with me
I'm not saying let your inhibitions go
But if you wanna sip this vodka wouldn't be
A crime to me

It could be simple as
It could be simple as
Loving on each other with no strings
It could be simple as
It could be simple as
We got more in common than you think

You're sexy I'm sexy
You want me I want you too
We all need somebody
And mine is right here for you
You're sexy I'm sexy
You want me I want you too
If you want somebody on your body
I'll be somebody to you
Whoo, whoo, whoo, whoo
Whoo, whoo, ooh, ooh

I'm not here to be the judge or testify
Oh baby we can't break the law if we don't ever lay it down
We're not here to find some kind of love tonight
But when you whisper little nothings
Girl I love the way it sounds

It could be simple as
It could be simple as
Loving on each other with no strings
It could be simple as
It could be simple as
We got more in common than you think

You're sexy I'm sexy
You want me I want you too
We all need somebody
And mine is right here for you
You're sexy I'm sexy
You want me I want you too
If you want somebody on your body
I'll be somebody to you
Whoo, whoo, whoo, whoo
Whoo, whoo, ooh, ooh

It could be simple as that
Playing without strings attached
Holding without holding back
And it could be simple as, simple as

You're sexy I'm sexy
You want me I want you too
We all need somebody

And mine is right here for you
You want me I want you too
If you want somebody on your body
I'll be somebody to you
Whoo, whoo, whoo, whoo,
