

Perfect Stranger

Eric Paslay

Hello hello, little small talk on a low-lit back porch
I didn't know all my friends were friends with all yours
How come nobody mentioned that they knew an angel?
I woulda found you faster if you'da worn your halo

Perfect stranger
Didn't take you long to get me
Wrapped round your finger
I was good as gone
You could be my heartbreak savior
If you wanna be
Perfect stranger
I kinda think you're perfect for me
I kinda think you're perfect for me

I know know, we just met but I swear I know ya
Ain't blowing smoke, I didn't say that just to get to hold ya
Falling can't really be this easy baby, can it?
Forever might just start right here right where we're standing

Perfect stranger
Didn't take you long to get me
Wrapped round your finger
I was good as gone
You could be my heartbreak savior
If you wanna be
Perfect stranger
I kinda think you're perfect for me

I wouldn't change a single flawless thing about ya
Except for maybe how long you spent without my arms around ya

Perfect stranger
Perfect stranger

Perfect stranger
Didn't take you long to get me
Wrapped round your finger
I was good as gone
You could be my heartbreak savior
If you wanna be
Perfect stranger
I kinda think you're perfect for me

I kinda think you're perfect baby
Eh, I kinda think you're perfect for me
I kinda think you're perfect for me
