

Anyone But Me

Eric Reprid

Look at all the fucks I don't give to anyone but me
You always said that I'm a selfish human being

Look at all the fucks I don't give to anyone but me
You always said that I'm a selfish human being

But I swear I gave you everything I had
And I gave you love but you ain't show it back
And shawty you lied to me
Was never gon' ride for me
Tried hurting my pride with it
And I took my time with it

And now I'm too gone
Too gone
Thought I was gon' change bae you can't be that dumb
Now I'm too numb
Too numb
Sippin' on some whiskey but I need somethin' stronger

Look at all the fucks I don't give to anyone but me
You always said that I'm a selfish human being
Look at all the fucks I don't give to anyone but me
You always said that I'm a selfish human being

Broke my heart now you beggin' for change
Double crossed me then say you a saint
Play these games now you tryna get saved
Got yo hand out I ain't even gon' wave
Ice in my cup, got ice in my veins
I'm showin' out fuck tuckin' my chain
We gettin' paid now you feelin' that pain
Brand new bitch she givin' me brain

And now I'm too gone
Too gone
Thought I was gon' change bae you can't be that dumb
Now I'm too numb
Too numb
Sippin' on some whiskey but I need somethin' stronger

Look at all the fucks that you'd give to anyone but me
I always knew you were a selfish human being
Look at all the fucks that you'd give to anyone but me
I always knew you were a selfish human being
Look at all the fucks that you'd give to anyone but me
I always knew you were a selfish human being
