

Don't Worry

Eric Reprid

I'm worried 'bout the way I been living
I'm worried that you'll look at me different
I'm worried that this will all change
I'm worried 'bout keeping you safe
I'm worried that I'm not that lucky
I'm worried that they never gon' love me
I'm worried that I'll be a fucking joke
I'm worried that I don't have control

Don't worry baby don't worry
Go and get some sleep why you always in a hurry
He got bigger things planned for you don't worry
You ain't gotta come to conclusions this early
Don't worry baby don't worry
Go and get some sleep why you always in a hurry
He got bigger things planned for you don't worry
You ain't gotta come to conclusions this early

I'm worried 'bout my fathers health
I'm worried 'bout being by myself
I'm worried I ain't doing too well
I'm worried but I did it to myself (yea)
I'm worried that you don't need me (need me)
I'm worried that you'll go and leave me (leave me)
I'm worried that it won't work out (yea)
I'm worried that I'll never make it out (yea)

Don't worry baby don't worry
Go and get some sleep why you always in a hurry
He got bigger things planned for you don't worry
You ain't gotta come to conclusions this early
Don't worry baby don't worry
Go and get some sleep why you always in a hurry
He got bigger things planned for you don't worry
You ain't gotta come to conclusions this early
